

SHEKNOWS[®] May , 2007

1690 Swimwear caters to the hottest Hollywood Stars!

A pool party with bikini clad Gisele's, Scarlett's, and Carmen's may sound too good to be true, but with the debut of 1690's brand new swimwear line, pool parties will be strictly A-list this summer! The latest splash to hit hot apparel, 1690 has come out with an entire line of bikinis inspired and modeled after some of the hottest bodies in Hollywood. Sexy suits named after the likes of celebrities such as Eva Longoria, Jennifer Lopez, and Scarlett Johansson, are designed and cut with the star's body type in mind. Customers with identifiable similarities with the star can replicate their favorite star's style and flaunt their own best features!

Owner and creator, Brian Fitterer recognized the need for high quality bikinis that flaunt and flatter different beautiful body types. From sexy sporty to classic pretty, each well constructed and fashionable piece has personality all on its own but are perfect for mixing and matching. After all, a Britney top and Jessica bottom is just one possible combination of hot!

With bikinis ranging from sizes x-small to medium, these swimsuits are designed for women that love their particular hot body type. While the sizes are some what limited, surprisingly, accessibility is not. Ranging from $90-$110 a suit, the reasonable prices invite everyone to plunge in!

To get your own celebrity look for the summer, shop on www.1690swimwear.com

